

NPR : National Public Radio

---

Saturday, April 6, 2024

Parents are struggling with high prices this year. It may shape how they vote

March fundraising numbers show Biden significantly outpacing Trump

Israel says it has recovered the body of Israeli hostage Elad Katzir in Gaza

A lot of kids got to see the last total eclipse. What they remember may surprise you

You asked, we answered: Your questions about electric vehicles

Blended families are common. Here are tips to help stepsiblings get along

Clouds and rain? Here's how to still enjoy the total solar eclipse

Many 911 call centers are understaffed, and the job has gotten harder

Air Force One and the great pillowcase plunder

Here's what we found after Israel's raid on Al-Shifa, Gaza's biggest hospital

Police shot Nakala Murry's young son. Now, she could lose custody of her kids

Young Miko upended norms in Latin pop. On her debut 'Att,' she raises her own bar.

Mexico's president says country will break diplomatic ties with Ecuador

Biden wants union labor to rebuild the Baltimore bridge. That could touch off a fight

This year, colleges must choose between fast financial aid offers, or accurate ones

99 Cents stores to close down all 371 locations

Powerball jackpot climbs to \$1.3B ahead of Saturday night's drawing

Trump demands a new judge just days before the start of his hush-money criminal trial

Cellist Maya Beiser's variation on a minimalist manifesto

El Laberinto del Coco: Tiny Desk x globalFEST 2024

---

Topics

- News
- Culture
- Music

Contact Us

Terms of Use

Permissions

Privacy Policy

© NPR